" MALICICUS CAVILING." The Evening Wisconsin is not pleased with Governor Hoard's first message. It would be interesting to know what that absurd paper expected. The editor of the Wisconein has been a resident of this state from im nemorial time, and as the editor of a daily paper, ought to be entirely familiar with all the affairs of the state. What great matter has he urged about which Governor Hoard is silent? What burning words has he written in favor of any great reform in the state to which Gov. Hoard has paid no attention? If there is any matter calling for the attention of the governor in his message to the legislature, not a word about it will be found in the columns of the Wisconsin. If Governor Hoard is weak or lacks courage because of some omission, how definent and cowardly must the Wisconsin be in failing, equally with the governor, to say anthing about it.—Milwaukoe San-

Time does seem to deal kindly with the Evening Wisconsin. There are some papers, the Sentinel, for instance, like some individuals, that grow better as they grow older, but the contrary is true of our devoted friend, the Wisconsin. The past six months have been months of disappointmet to that paper. It didn't want Governor Hoard nominated, but he was. It tried to throw cold water on the gubernatorial canvass, but Mr. Hoard went steaming through at a great rate, and his majority was a spleudid triumph.

It is not therefore, surprising that the Evening Wisconsin does not like Governor Hoard's message. Opposition papers do not like anything that smacks of republicanism. The Pharisees didn't like the sermon on the mount. Democrats were always opposed to the message of republican governors and republican presidents. But let us see what Governor Hoard has left undone that so some wise suggestions in regard to the Milwaukee election law; the fraudulent manufacturers of butterine, and so lonand the adulteration of food and drinks; soldiers' home at Waupaca; insurance law; requiring inof all schools for the with the authority, only, to require that reading and writing in English be daily taught therein; the powers and rights of the railway commissioner; using the war tax fund with which to exect some suitable memorial of the patriotic services of Wisconsin in the war; the national guard; investing trust funds now lying idle in the treasury; concerning the date of meeting of presidential electors be changed to conform with the United States law. He shows the condition of every department of the state government, and presents some interesting facts and figures that every intelligent reader should understand. more thorough presentation of facts regarding the affairs of the state business, and what more do his opponents want? Did they want him to deliver a lecture on moral questions? That is not the business of a governor in preparing a message for the legislature. The Gazette would have been well pleased to see the governor make some reference to the temperance question, for that is a great moral question at this time, but he thought best to Do otherwise, and against his judgment

GENERAL HARRISON AND THE

There have been a good many unkind references made by the clergy to the ball tion the tariff reformers can adopt, is the which is to take place at Washington on the inauguration of General Harrison; the Americans need. and they even go so far as to demand in the name of church that the general shall stay from the ball, and further that he shall use his influence to stop the dance. General Harrison has nothing to do with the ball. He couldn't stop if he wanted to; and it would be a questionable preceeding on his part if he attempted to interfere. He cannot regulate the social customs of the people. His official and personal influence ought not to be thrown against a custom that is almost as old as the government. He cannot dictate how he shall be inaugurated. He cannot prescribe the rules that shall govern the society of Washington in which he will move when be enters the white house. The people of Washington make arrangements as well as the handsomest, and others are day and sentenced to ten days in the county for the ball as they have done invited to call on any druggist and get a for the inauguration of other presidents. General Harrison will probably witness the brill:ant festal scene, but as attractive and funny as it may seem, it is not at all likely that he will be seen dancing the "Virginia Reel," or any other number. However much stimulation there may be about the dance, it has been proved a great many times that General Harrison's mind and body have abundant stimulation already. He can run like a recer on the presidential course, and his mind is so active that he beat all previeus records during the campaign in

He has too exalted a view of his duty as a citizen and as president to make himself ridiculous. He proposes to conduct his life on sound business principles, and the clergy are d ing themselves no credit to insist that he shall make a fuss about the ball. When it comes to the white house social affairs, General Harrison will have something to say. He may conclude that he can give a state dinner as President Hayes did, without liquor It is hoped by all temperance people thahe will give his guests the best tea and coffee in the market and let them go elsewhere for their liquor drinks. In this matter General Harrison will have a

Mr. Sangesand is a resident of the town of Primrose, in this county, and during the entire residence of Kuhni in this county has had a personal acquaintance with him. Governor Hoard notified the American minister of the appointment this morning. Sangesand started for Washington this after noon, and will sail on a North German Lloyd steamer from New York next Wednesday. BENSATIONAL MURDER IN A

WISCONSIN TOWN.

Doctors Settle a Bill With Pistols-Vengeance on a Murderer-The Criminal Record.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., Jan. 12.-Dr. O. Meyer, a physician of this city, aged 4, was shot dead at about 4 o'clock Friday afternoon by Philip Griffith,

Half an hour before the murder Meyer and William Griffith, his brother-in-law, had quarreled in front of the postoffice and had come to blows, but had been separated by bystanders. Afterward they walked down Main street together and turned south on Third street. Less than fifty feet from the corner Meyer's father-in law stepped up behind him and placing a revoice. Two Doctors Quarrel Over a Small Ac HOLDEN, Mo., Jan. 12.-Dr. Starke and or. Pitser, rival physicians in the village of Chilhowee, in this county, opened fire on each other in a store last night and Dr. Pitser was killed and Alexander McLin shot in the side. Dr. Starke, is 35 years of age, is a practicing physician, and bears the reputation of being a quiet, inoffensive citizen. Dr. Pitser is of about the same age, also stood well with his neighbors. The trouble grew out of account which Dr. Starke claimed Dr. Pitser owed him. The account was sent to Dr. Pitser yesterday, and afterward the two men met and quarreled over t. At the time Dr. Pitser had a doublebarreled shotgun, but whether he took it with him because he expected a quarrel is not known. Friends prevented them from coming together and they separated. After supper the men of the town gathered in the store, among them Dr. Starke. Later Pitser came in and their quarrel was renewed, the men coming to blows. It was then that Dr. Starke began shooting.

STANLEY'S DANGER.

General Uprising of the Natives in Congo-Converts Massacred. LONDON, Jan. 12.—Dispatches from the Congo contain news of a sanguinary revolution in Uganda. King Mwanga has been overthrown and expelled, and his elder brother, Kiwewa, enthroned in his place. The English and French missions in the kingdom have been destroyed and the kingdom have been destroyed and the missionaries barely escaped with their lives. There has been a general massacre of native converts, All the immense stores accumulated by Stanley and Emin Bey have been destroyed.

Christian influence, which had obtained such a strong hold in Uganda through the efforts of Stanley and others, has been swept away. The Mohammedan power has been fully restored. The Arabs threaten to exterminate the missionaries in Central Africa. They declare Christianity shall be swept from the face of the land in revenge for England's efforts to abolish the slave trade. Nothing further has been heard of Stanley, and it is not known where he was when this revolution took place.

Prince Bismarck's Sensation. BERLIN, Jan. 12.-Prince Bismarck i again in vigorous health. After a few weeks' stay in Berlin he will go to Varzin, taking his departure thence early in the spring. It is asserted by semi-official newspapers that the Chancellor's forthcoming speech in the Reichstag is certain to create a great sensation. He will, it said, endeavor to prove from the Geffcken and Morier incidents the theory that during the reign of Empeoror Frederick intrigues were on foot to overthrow him.

German-American Catholics. Rome, Jan. 12 — The propaganda, after hearing arguments on both sides in relation to the complaint of the Irish bishops in America that German Catholic residents in many Irish districts insist upon having special parishes of their own, with German priests and schools, has instructed Cardinal Melchers to prepare for the Pope a report on the subject. The selection of Cardinal Melchers is thought to indicate a decision in favor of the Germans.

The Milkman Not Guilty. LONDON, Jan. 12.-The Bradford (Yorkshire) magistrates to-day decided that a prima facie case had not been proved against Barrett, the milkman who was charged with the murder of 8-year-old John Gill, whose body was found horribly mutilated on the morning of Dec. 29. The prisoner was released. The decision of the magistrates was received by those gathered in the court room with applause.

IGAN LAW-MAKERS. Recommendations of Governor Gray-Proceedings at Springfield-Measures Proposed at Lansing.

INDIANA, ILLINOIS AND MICH-

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12. - The Legslature met at 10 o'clock Friday morning, and the scene around the Senate chamber was a mild repitition of that which occur-Col. Robertson, accompanied by Senator De Motte, of Valparaiso, approached the door leading into the Senate chamber and the former nearly slipped in, but the watchful doorkeeper, Bulger, stepped before him and intercepted his passage. Robertson again demanded admission, stating that he was the Lieutenant-Governor of Bulger replied: "Colonel, my orders to keep you out are still in force." DeMott passed in, leaving the rejected Colonel on the outside, where he remained nearly the entire morning. The session was devoted to trivial matters such as drawing for seats and discussing and correcting Thursday's journal. President Pro Tem Cox presided without protest. At 1 o'clock the Senate adjourned to meet the House in joint session at 2 o'clock to receive the Governor's message. The House was in session but a few moments, completed its organization, and then adjourned.

Gov. Gray's Message. The two houses met in joint session Friday afternoon. Speaker Niblack presided and Lieut. -Gov. -elect Chase was unanimously invited to occupy a chair beside the Speaker. Lieut.-Gov. Robertson was not present. Gov. Gray appeared before the Houses and delivered his message, which took an hour in its delivery. He said the State debt was now $6,670,608, of which one-half was owing to the school fund and drawing 6 per cent interest. He recommended that the debt to the school fund be paid and the money distributed to the counties. The State could borrow all the money that she wanted at 3 per cent, and the saving in interest annually would be over $100,000. He recommended that a tax of 2 cents on the $100 be levied to pay off the debt of the State. . He dwelt at length on the reform needed in the election laws, and said, in part:

"I earnestly invite your attention to the imperative necessity for a revision of the election laws, so as to guard more effectually the exercise of the elective franchise and secure to the people fair and honest elections. It is manifest that the public faith in the purity of our elections has be-come shaken, and the feeling is widespread reflects the honest judgment of a majority of the voters. It is needless to say that the ballot box is the superstructure upo which is built our representative form of government, and in our ability to maintain its purity lies the only hope of the perpet-uity of our free institutions. You can render the State no more exalted service than to frame and enact such laws so far as legislation can accomplish, prevent the corrupt use of money, preserve the secrecy of the ballot voter only at the poling places under such restrictions as will give every voter the opportunity to select and vote the ticket of his choice without interference by others, and congregating and electioneering about the polling places should be strictly prohibited. The laws should be so framed as to exclude all surveillance over the voter while casting his ballot. I would recommend that the election precincts contain not over 200 voters. I feel that I cannot too strongly urge upon you the importance of giving the matter earnest and early con-

"White Cap" Outrages. On the subject of "White Cap" outrages

the Governor said: "Evidence was finally procured against the principal participants, who were in dicted and the trial set for Dec. 24, 1888. The defendants have taken a change of venue, and the time of the trial is now fixed for March 26. The lawlessness has been completely suppressed. Intimations have been given by persons implicated that they desire to arrange with the State, agreeing that no further outrages would be committed if prosecutions on the part of the State would cease. I felt that the State could not afford te compromise with persons guilty of such offense, and have instructed the authorities to prosecute all, against whom evidence can be obtained, to the full extent of the law."

The Governor reccommends that the constitution be amended so as to make the term of all county and State officers four instead of two years and providing for their election on years when no presidential contest is up. At the conclusion of the message the General Assembly stood ad-

Gov.-elect Hovey arrived from Washington Friday night. He was met at the depot by a number of friends, including several members of the Legislature, and escorted to his hotel. He has handed Gov. Gray his resignation as Congressman from the First Indiana district, and it is thought the Gov ernor will immediately issue notice for a special election to fill the vacancy.

ILLINOIS SOLONS

Monday Afternoon. SPRINGFIELR, Ill., Jan. 12.-When the House was called to order Friday morning several members who were absent Thursday forenoon advanced to the bar of the Hous and took the oath of office.

An Adjournment of Both Houses to

The reading of the Governor's message, which had been deferred from Thursday, was ordered, and occupied the attention of the House for the next hour and a half. During its reading the Senate reported back with amenement the House joint resolution for a meeting of the two Houses in joint assembly on Monday at 11 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of witnessing the inauguration. The amendment changed the hour of meeting from 11 to 2 o'clock, and was concurred in by the House. At the conclusion of the Governor's message a resolution was adopted referring its various subjects to the appropriate committees for

A resolution offered by Mr. Miller, providing for the printing of 10,000 copies of the Governor's message, found strong op position from the Democratic side. That party opposed the expense, but the resolution prevailed. The committee on inaugural ceremonies in a preliminary report stated that in view of the limited seating capacity of the hall of the House, it had been decided that admission should be obtained by ticket only Each member of the House would be supplied by mail with a proportionate number of tickets, which he would be at liberty to distribute at his discretion.

Quite a long discussion was occasioned by a motion of Mr. Meyer that when the House ajourns for the day it be until Monday 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. Crafts thought 1:45 p. m. would be early enough, since the Senate had adjourned until that hour, and Meyer accepted the amendment.

The Speaker then announced the appointment of the following committees.

Smiley, Green, Converse, Mahoney, and Rules—The Speaker, Miller, Doolittle, White, Baker, Crafts, Jones, Merritt, and Members of the House on the joint com-

In the Senate. But little business was transacted in the Senate, the most important feature of the forenoon being the introduction of a bill by Senator Reinhardt for "An act to establish uniformity of text-books in the public schools of each judicial circuit and of counties having a population of 100,000 inhabitants or more in the State of Illinois." It provides that the school superintendents of the counties in each judicial circuit shall meet on the first Tuesday of August and every six years thereafter to select text-books for all the schools of the circuit, agree upon the lowest price for each book and take bonds from the publishers of the selected books for their delivery at the agreed price. In counties of 100,000 or more inhabitants two delegates from every board of education and one delegate from every board of directors selected by their colleagues shall meet with the county superintendent of schools on the same day and select books in the same manner as designated for other counties. The Senate adjourned to 1:45

p. m Monday.

Several Important Measures Already Introduced in Both Houses.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 12.-Wearled by the three days' work this week the Senate adjourned Friday night until next Tnesday afternoon, and the House until Monday Before adjournment Senator Dunstan gave notice that he would introduce a bill to punish the firing of mines and mine buildings. This action was caused by the recent fatal incendiary fire in the Calumet and Hecla copper mine. Representative Baker of Berrien gave notice that he would introduce a joint resolution to appropriate $10,000 for a statue to Gen. Custer. Representative Rogers will introduce a bill to prohibit the sale of cigars, cigarettes, and tobacco to minors.

The House unanimously passed the Senate bill which provides for the meeting of the electoral college the second Monday in January. The Governor will sign the bill at once, and it will go into immediate effect. Representative Judd has a bill providing for the admission of insane members of the Soldiers' Home to one of the insane asylums of the State.

Gov. Luce has made the following appointments: Henry A. Forest of East Saginaw, member of the Board of Corrections and Charities for eight years; Henry F. Hatch, warden of the State Prison at Jackson for two years; Victor C. Vaughn of Ann Arbor and Delos Falls of Albion, members of the State Board of Corrections and Charities for six years.

Earthquake Shock in Pennsylvania. PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Reports from Dannemora say a shock of earth-quake was felt at half-past 6 o'clock, so evere that people ran from their dwellings to the streets in alarm. A similar shock was also felt at Saranac Lake, Morrisonville, Cadyville, Loon Lake, Stanish, Clayburgh and Lyon Mountain. The shock was barely perceptible in Plattsburg. All the drops at the telephone exchange dropped at 6:40. This was its only effect here.

To Benefit His Creditors. St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 12-Richard Saner, manufacturer of show-cases, made an as signment yesterday for the benefit of creditors to Robert E. France, trustee, who gave bond for $50,000.

We have taken account of stock on January 1st for thirty odd years and expect to do so this year. All we can dispose of before Jan. 1st is a desirable thing to do. Some people have the idea that the price of goods is advanced toward the holidays. We do not do so but think the time to put prices down is when people want goods. We know our store is small and crowded with goods, so we ask the people to come early and make selections, and if necessary we will put goods away for them. Our stock is complete in every line, and you can depend on complete in every line, and you can depend on the prices being bottom. CHRIST'S DOCTRINE. International Sunday-School Lesson for January 13, 1889. [Specially arranged from S. S. Quarterly.] LESSON TEXT-Mark 1: 21-34.

GOLDEN TEXT-As His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day.-Luke 4:16. CENTRAL TRUTH—Jesus and His religion are full of blessed words and works for all. TIME-April, May, A. D. 28. A year and five months after the baptism of Jesus. PLACE-The northwestern shores of the Sea of Galilee, chiefly at Capernaum. PARALLEL ACCOUNTS-Matt. 8: 14-17: Luke INTERVENING HISTORY—The temptation of Jesus (Mark 1: 12, 13; Matt. 4: 1-11). Jesus returns, February, A. D. 27, from the wilderness to Bethabara, to John (John 1:19-42). Thence He goes to Galilee (March), attends the marriage at Cana. Returns to Jerusalem to the passover, April 9, A. D. 27, and spends the summer and early autumn preaching in Judea (John 4:3). Goes back to Galilee, passing through Samaria (John 4: 4-42) (December), preaches and heals omany. John the Baptist imprisoned; goes to Jerusalem to passover, March 29, A. D. 28 (John 5). Returns to Galilee (Luke 4: 14); preaches at Nazareth and is rejected there (Luke 4: 16-32); and then goes to Capernaum, where He makes His home (Matt. 4: 12-17). Calls four disciples to be His constant attendants (Mark 1: 16-20). INTRODUCTION—Mark passes in silence over nearly a year of the life of Jesus. chiefly because that year was spent largely in Judea; and Peter, from whom Mark received much of his Gospel, was not the constant attendant of Jesus till the time of our present lesson. We have to-day specimens of Jesus' method of bringing men into His kingdom. HELPS OVER HARD PLACES-Jesus next spends the last part of a year and a half in Galilee. 21. Capernaum: a city on the northwest coast of the Sca of Galilee, supposed to have contained 30,000 inhabitants. Synagogue: a place of assembly, like our modern church. 22. Taught . . . authority: He spoke as one who knew all things, for He did know. Scribes: the learned peo-ple of the Jews. 23. Unclean spirit: called unclean, because He made the man unclean, unholy, vile, in body and soul. 25. Hold thy peace: the testimony of a bad spirit would injure a good cause. Even the truths liar tells are thought to be lies. 26. Cried with a loud voice: an inarticulate cre, not a word of speech, which Jesus had forbidden. 27. What new doctrine: rather, teaching; referring to both matter and manner. And they do obey Him: His miracles added authority to His words. 29. Forthwith: immediately. 30. Sick of a fever: Luke says, a great fever; they were common at Capernaum on account of the marshes. 31. She ministered: showing that the cure was instantaneous and complete. 32. At even: they came then (1) as the pleasantest time for the sick; (2) the news had just got around; (3) their Sabbath ended at sunset, and the people felt at liberty to go abroad and do any needed work. 34. Healed many: showing the divine mission of Jesus, to heal, to elp, to comfort, to save. Divers: various.

COMMENTS-Jesus led a very busy life for the three years of His public ministry. So busy was He, that at times He and His His Sundays were no exception to the general rule, and of these we have a specimen in the lesson for to-day. In the morning of that day He entered into the synagogue, and there found a man who had an unclean spirit. The evil spirits that possessed the man led him to cry out and beseech the Saviour to let him alone. At this, Jesus, in compassion, rebuked the evil spirit, and commanded him to come out of the man. In rage at this command, and yet powerless to refuse, the spirit tore the man violently, and came out of him. At this the people were amazed, and the fame of the Master was spread abroad in all that region. As soon as they came out of the synagogue, they went to the house of Simon Peter, whose mother-in-law was very sick; and Jesus, taking her by the hand, rebuked the fever, and in an instant she was perfectly healed of the disease, so that she got up and began to wait on her guests. This caused the people of that neighborhood to bring to the Master all those who were in any way sick, and He healed them all. So great was the number of those who thus came, that we are told that the whole city was gathered around the doors of Peter's house. But this was probably not the only time when the Master was thus busy, for there were many people that were sick, and it is probable that on many a day He was as busy as He could be from morning to night in ministering to their bodily wants.

The most prominent point in this lesson is the healing power of Jesus. There is no recorded instance in which any sick person applied to Him for healing in vain. In one or two instances he delayed granting the request, as in the case of Lazarus and the Syro-Phænician woman. But in every instance the delay was for beneficent purposes. To other requests Jesus sometimes gave a flat denial, as when He was asked by carping Pharisees for a sign, or when James and John asked for places of extraordinary pre-eminence in His kingdom, or when a man wanted him to turn civil judge, and decide a case between his brother and himself. But whenever poor stricken humanity turned to Christ for relief it always found his heart and hand ready to administer it. So not in Galilee alone, but wher ever He went, blessings of healing flowed from His gentle hands. There were thousands in that land who could bear witness to His healing power, since for three years He went about doing good. No earthly monarch ever made such a "progress" through his realms. Some, indeed, have given money abundantly when they have ourneyed in state through their dominions, but none was ever able to awaken such a continued chorus of gratitude as this man show them by a real object lesson, that what He did for their bodies was but a type of what He was ready to do for their souls. The healed man, the restored woman, would all the more readily listen to the words of life that sprang from His lips. And even if nine lepers out of the ten went away ungratoful yof the tenth would come back full of gratitude. Who can tell whether even one in ten would have turned to Him had the way not thus been made easy and attractive!-Rev. A. F. Schauffler. THE only force that is stronger than Satan is the eternal God. In his strength alone is our sure deliverance from sin. Man needs not a man-made religion, but a religion that takes fast hold on a personal God, that finds its hope in a personal, living, and loving Saviour, a religion whose constant and ever-present guide is the Spirit of Light. ONE of the sincerest expressions of one's gratefulness to God, the giver of all good gifts, will appear in his own thoughtful and have received; freely give.

WEBSTER truly concluded that it is what a man does for others, not what they do for him, that gives him immortality.

That Cantankerous Old Woman Described in the nursery ballsd, who lived upon nothing but victuals and drink," and yet "would never be quiet," was undoubtedly troubled with chronic indigestion. Her yiotuals, like those of many other elderly persons whose digestive powers have become impaired, didn't agree with her. This was before the era of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, or seme one of her numerons friends and rela-tives would undoubtedly have persuaded tives would undoubtedly have persuaded her to try the great specific for dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. This would have been a measure of self-protection on their part, for she would soon have been cured and seased to disturb them with her clamor. The most obstinate cases of indigestion, with its attendant heartburn, flatulence, constant pressings of the stomach and of the ney troubles are also relieved by it.

A DAY'S BUSINESS IN CON-GRESSIONAL HALLS.

The Senate Completes the Free List-Two Public Building Bills Pass the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Senate has completed the consideration of the free-list ection of the tariff bill. The following items were stricken from the free list: Fresh fish made subject to a duty of & cent | Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles a pound), leather scraps, mica and mica waste, and osier and willow. Regarding the last item Mr. Allison said he proposed to put it on the dutiable list at 10 per cent. The debate of the session was on the amendmet offered by Mr. Plumb to strike out the words "except when frozen or packed in ice, or otherwise prepared by fresh fish section, so as to let the paragraph read simply "fresh fish." Mr. Plumb argued that the exception discriminated against the people of the interior. The people living near the Canadian line could avail themselves of the privilege of purchasing fresh fish free of duty, while if that fish were transported a short distance into the interior (which would require the use of salt) the people who used it were required to pay a duty on it.

Mr. Hoar said he did not understand that the provision spoken of involved at all the general question of protection to American industry. The paragraph rested on an altogether different theory, and that was that instead of establishing costly training schools for naval officers competent to command ships and of seamen accustomed to exposure and danger, it would be better to cultivate, under the fostering care of the government, the coast fisheries. After further discussion Mr. Plumb' mendment was withdrawn.

THE HOUSE.

The Milwaukee and Omaha Public-Buildings Bills Passed.

Washington, Jan. 12. - Friday's sessi the House was again devoted to rollcalls and points of order. Mr. Weaver, however, did not have things all his own way, as the Speaker decided several points against him. One of these was that a conference report took precedence over a motion to adjourn, and under this ruling the conference reports on the Milwaukee (Wis.) and Omaha (Neb.) public-building bills were agreed to. The first-named bill as agreed to appropriates $4,200,000 and the other $600,000. During the debate on the Milwaukee bill Mr. Weaver managed to get in a speech in favor of the Oklahoma measure, during which he said that the will of the House and the wishes of the country had been disregarded and trampled in the dust by a small minority which was opposed to the bill. He was finally shut off by Mr. Mason, who raised the point of order that he was not speaking to the subject before the House.

After further dilatory motions, on mo-tion of Mr. Weaver the House took a recess, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills. Mr. Weaver was not present during the evening session, but his place was occupied by Mr. Kilgore (Texas), who announced that so long as one man could prevent the transaction of public business in the House no private bills should be passed. He was successful in blocking business until 8:30, when the House adjourned.

German Intolerance in Samoa. WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Consul-General Sewall of Samoa, who has been at home for several months, was examined secretly by the Senate committee on foreign relations. Mr. Sewall is reported to have expressed the belief that the next mail will bring news of further and more terrible conflicts between the Germans and natives than any that have yet occurred. He said that the shedding of blood since he left Samoa had radically changed the situation of affairs there, and that if it were not intended to yield to Germany entire control of their lands some decided action would have to be taken by the powers. Mr. Sewall spoke of the studied and systematic efforts of the Germans in sending out news from Berlin concerning Samoa to create the impression that an American was the aggressor in every case of trouble. German oppression, he said, was entirely responsible for any apparent division of the natives into hostile

Eleven Days of Terrible Suffering. New York, Jan. 12.—The steamer Bermuda, from St. Kitts, arrived here this morning. She carried as passengers Captain James Vancy, Clark Hill, T. P. Mc-Cormick and John Galecta, of the schooner Garnet, which was wrecked off the east coast of Bermuda about the middle of December. The Garnet was bound from Port Amboy for Boston. When she was forty miles off the Highland lightship, in Boston harbor, she encountered the storm which visited the eastern coast of the United States at that time. On Dec. 28, when the storm had subsided, the schooner's crew found themselves adrift in the ocean on an old hulk, without spark or spar. For eleven days they drifted about at the mercy of the winds, subsisting on water soaked provisions and molasses for water. They were finally rescued by the schooner James Wray, a few miles off Bermuda and taken to St. Kitts. Eugene Wetherill's Burial. GLOUCESTER, Mass., Jan. 12.—Emma Abbott, with the body of her husband, Eugene Wetherill, arrived here yesterday. A great crowd of women and men blocked the platform. Miss Abbott was in the rear car. She was the first to get off, and, under the direction of the master of arrangements, went quickly to the carriage in waiting. She wore a black dress, over which was a long wrap, and her face was completely hidden by a heavy veil. Her maid and private secretary followed, accompanied by M. L. Wetherill, brother of the deceased, and Mrs. Wetherill, his mother, who had met the party in Boston. The burial took place to-day.

The most agonizing, humiliating,

I have been afflicted since last March with a skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itch ing and burning were almost unbearable beeing your Cuticura Remedies so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the Cuticura Soap externally, and Resolvent in-ternally for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public state-ment. Mrs. CLABA A. FREDERICK, Broad Brook, Conn.

ECZEMA THREE YEARS CURED. Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case of Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent.

ECZEMA ON BABY CURED. My baby has been troubled with eczema on his face, neck, head, ears, and entire body. He was one mass of scabs, and we were obliged to tie his hands to prevent his scratching. I have spent dollars on remedies without effect, but after using one box outcurs and one cake of Cuticura soap the child is entirely cured. I cannot thank you enough for hem.

Boston Journal: -A large audience rathered in the the Boston Theatre last night to witness."The Streets of New York." It seems scarcely possible that there can be many play-goers unfamiliar with the piece, and yet the great enthusiasm over the especially striking scenes and the general applause through out, showed that either a large number that many so admired it that they could not restrain their expressions of approval on repeated hearings. Improbable as a large number of the scenes are, exaggerated as it appears in pisturing types of character, and high-strung as it is in its sensationalism and sentimentalism, there the other parts were fairly well carried. 'Isn't it curious that no Janesville hostess has yet looked with favor on the ides of a dinner patry," said a well known society lady the other day. "Of course, when the town was in cowhide slouch hats a six seven o'clock dinner was not to be thought of: but things have changed ince then. You see ten gentlemen in ull dress at an ordinary gathering now where one could be found two years ago. The town has advanced vastly in a social way; entertainers are puzzling their heads to hit upon something new, and I wonder a little that the full dress dinner isn't taken up. It is something of unbounded possibilities and a hostess given opportunity to show her originality Janesville people have before them no small treat in the promised visit of Julia Marlowe. Eastern dramatic critics say that Miss Marlowe has a brilliant future before her, and is destined to become the leading dramatic artist of America. She is described as having a fine figure, a beautiful face, and the advantage of being young and robust. She has the voice of Bernhardt, the personal magnetism of Neilson, and the grace of Mary Anderson. Miss Marlowe has just made her debut in Philadelphia in "Romeo and Juliet," and is thought by some to be the ideal Juliet.

Clerk Inman of the municipal court has a novelty in pen shields that he thinks seriously of patenting. He was troubled the other day with a slippery pen holder. No rubber was at hand, and finally he picked up a bit of chamois skin. It was an inch and a half wide, and just long enough to make a sleeve for the holder. Joining the two edges with a ST. MARY'S CHURCH.—Catholic—Corner of indefinite time, lip of court plaster, he slipped the little chamious skin ferule over the butt of the holder and found he had a finger rest that none of those sold in the bookstores could equal.

There is a puffing or a crumpled loop of velvet over the center of the brim in front; in most cases the edge is bordered with velvet, but sometimes the material is put on plain beneath a band of some kind of trimming. Shapes in hats with crowns definitely square are varied by those that are rounded on the edge, oval crowns, and crowns high and square at the front and shelving down in a gentle curve at the back. Tapering crowns reappear in cer tain of the shapes, notably in those with the closer brims, and there is a prospective run on the alpine hat, with its tall, peaked crown and close brim. The hat which is the outgrowth of the Tosca hat is growing to the circumference of the Gainsborough shape, while less shadowy because of the jauntiness which distinguishes the Directoire styles. Turbans and toques vary the flaunting shapes with modifications of the Tyrolean peasant, or the alpine hat, and the brigand hat for ladies to whom closer hats are suited. Crown pieces of soft felt, showing em broidery of felt in cut applications, and perforated felt crowns, some of which have embroidery additional, are among the nov-

ABOUT SPIDERS.

Evenson, druggists.

French scientists are puzzling over a spider which has been discovered in the hollow interior of a stone. It is estimated that the stone must be at least 400 years old, but the spider is quite lively and youthful in its anties. It is blind and has no mouth.

Mr. Louis Nevin, of Louisville, recently Plymouth postoffice in 1888 amounted to undertook to bring from Hot Springs an immense tarantula which he captured there. While on the road between Hot Springs and Little Rock the spider escaped from the bottle in which it had been imprisoned and started in a promenade down the aisle of the car. For half an hour confusion reigned and the ugly insect had all the passengers at his mercy. Finally he was safely corraled and bottled up, but Mr. Nevin was forced to take himself and his pet off at the next station.
